

The Great War Comes to an End

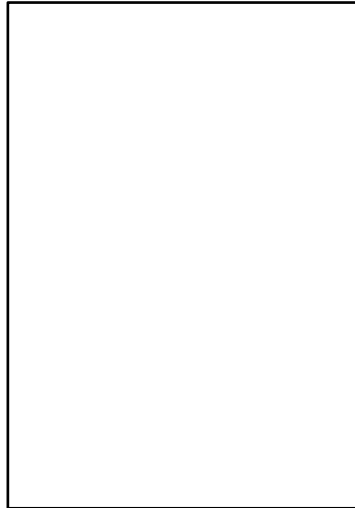

Before we hear about how the Great War ended and the "Peace" that was settled between 32 victorious countries, why don't you try and put the puzzle together yourself. The following key terms are important elements to the story. Place each in one of the boxes below. One word can also be used in two boxes.

Treaty of Versailles Canada Communism Canadian independence
Germany War Guilt League of Nations geographical boundaries
Britain reduction of power 66, 573 lives Spanish Flu
France 11th month, 11th day, 11th hour, 1918 revenge
changing roles for women Paris armistice reparations

Characters

Settlements

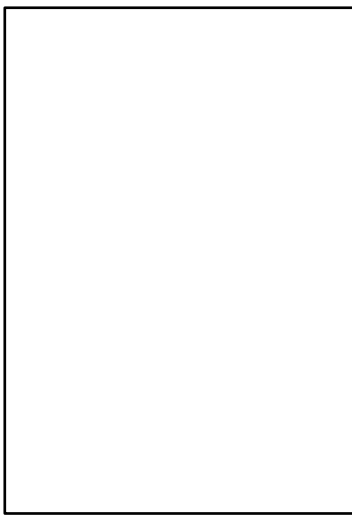

Problems

Outcomes

Unknown Words

Gist Statement (I predict this is about....) – complete on the back if you need to.

Use your textbook – pages 36 – 40 – to answer the following questions.

1. What was The Hundred Days and what influence did it have on the end of war?
2. When did the First World War officially end? What is it called?
3. What was the Treaty of Versailles? List 5 – 7 things it made Germany do. What was the “War Guilt” clause?
4. Compare the map on page 38 (after World War One) to the map on page 17 (prior to and during World War One). What stayed the same and what changed?
5. What achievements did Canada gain in World War One?
6. What was the League of Nations and what was its goal?